

THE | OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE SINGING SCHOOL

Summer 2016

25th- 29th July 2016

Merton College, Oxford

About us

Established in 2013, The Oxford and Cambridge Singing School is for boys and girls aged 7–13 who love to sing. The singing school was established to give children the opportunity to sing great classical music with world class coaches in a relaxed and fun environment and to develop their confidence and ability in singing and performing.

About the course

Held at Merton College Oxford, pupils will learn some beautiful music and at the same time gain a background in vocal technique, music theory and history. In honour of the Queen's birthday, this summer we will be working on some of the greatest pieces by Henry Purcell, considered to be one of the finest English composers; and Handel's Zadok the Priest.

Families are most welcome to come and listen to a mini-concert at the end of each day. Courses include whole-group singing, musical games and exercises to improve sight reading, small group vocal coaching and much more.

"How lucky are these young singers. They are brilliantly taught and have a lot of fun, and you will be amazed at what they achieve in just a few days - and all in the most beautiful surroundings". Bob Chilcott

Places are limited. Please book early to avoid disappointment.
