

THANK YOU!

COMIC RELIEF

RED
NOSE
DAY

Dear Crowmarsh Gifford CE Primary School,

Wow. Just wow.

So far, an incredible £65 million (and counting) has been raised, thanks to the imagination and effort of wonderful people like you.

As ever, I'm astounded by the efforts of everyone involved. Whether you baked, dressed up, put on a show or did something completely daft, I salute you.

To help say thank you to everyone who joined in the fun, we've made a certificate for you to proudly put up to announce your total. There's also a thank you film and an assembly to share with your pupils at comicrelief.com/free-downloads.

The money you and your school raised for Red Nose Day will help change countless lives here in the UK and the world's poorest communities.

On behalf of everyone at Comic Relief, thank you.

Lenny Henry
Honorary Life President, Comic Relief

HOW YOUR MONEY WILL HELP

You raised an amazing £398 which could enable a community health volunteer in Kenya to support mothers and children for one year and one month.

Alice's Day– Picnic Afternoon

Oxford Botanic Garden | 1pm-4pm

Saturday 6 July

Join us for an afternoon of curious music, performance, activities, crafts and fun. Find the Mad Hatter organising his tea party and running a series of nonsense games. Make your own curious 'drink me' potion, plant some peculiar seeds, plus, make a Queen of Hearts crown or Mad Hatter top hat.

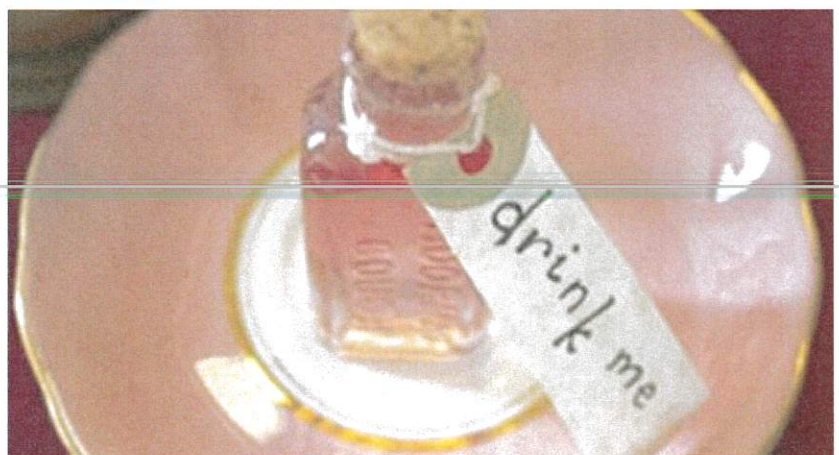

Relax with a picnic at our enormous Alice tablecloth or pick up something yummy in the Garden to eat.

Fun for all ages.

Activities free with admission to the Garden. Adults £6, accompanied children under 16, FREE
